The following circular is promulgated for information, guidance and necessary action

Hamza S. Johari

Director General

TANZANIA AERONAUTICAL INFORMATION MANAGEMENT PUBLICATION CHARGES

Tanzania Civil Aviation Authority provides the Aeronautical Information Service necessary for the safety, regularity, and efficiency of air navigation for the entire territory of Tanzania and the Airspace over the high seas encompassed by the Dar es Salam Flight Information Region (FIR).

Basic Aeronautical information document that contains permanent information essential to air navigation within the Dar es Salam (FIR) is published as Aeronautical Information Publication (AIP) Tanzania and is updated by a regular amendment service issued regularly when the need arises. The publication dates are normally published on the first AIRAC effective dates of January.

The AIP is prepared in accordance with the Standards and Recommended Practices (SARPs) of Annex 4, 10 Vol II, and 15 to the Convention on International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO), the Aeronautical Information Services Manual (ICAO Doc. 8126), Aeronautical Chart Manual (ICAO Doc. 8697) and PANS AIM (ICAO Doc. 10066). The AIP is made up of three parts: General (GEN), En-route (ENR), and Aerodromes (AD), each part is divided into sections and subsections as applicable to AIP Tanzania.

Aeronautical Information Products are prepared in accordance with the standards and Recommended Practices (SARPs) and are kept up to date by amendments.

The price and subscription rates of the products are shown in the table I below and are purchased by completing the AIM Publication Order Form which is available on the TCAA's website (www.tcaa.go.tz) under Air Navigation services section – AIM Publication. The form is also available at the AIS/AIM office at TCAA Headquarters.
